

Gerhard K. Heilig

Senior Research Scholar, Leader: ERD-Initiative

Laxenburg, Austria, April 20, 2001

Dear Colleague,

On behalf of IIASA's ERD Initiative I thank you for your upcoming participation in the workshop on "European Rural Development", which is organized by the International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis, Research Initiative on European Rural Development (ERD) and the Polish Committee for Cooperation with IIASA, Polish Academy of Sciences in association with the Institute of Agricultural and Food Economics in Warsaw, Poland.

I believe the workshop will provide an avenue for an exciting exchange of ideas and suggestions, and hopefully develop a platform for future collaboration.

For your convenience and information, attached is a detailed workshop program and participants list. In addition, please find a map of downtown Warsaw, coordinates for the workshop venue and hotel information where out of town participants will stay.

If you have further questions concerning the enclosed or any queries regarding travel and hotel arrangements, please contact my secretary Monica Goldman at Tel: +43-2236-807-575 or via email at goldman@iiasa.ac.at

I look forward to seeing you in Warsaw.

Yours sincerely,

Gerhard K. Heilig